In the course you will learn to use your intuition, muscle-checking, and a visual health map to observe the potential for change and healing: because the focus is on what's ready to shift, the balances are generally powerful and long lasting. You'll learn how quantum physics, traditional medicine theory and sacred geometry combine to create the potential for instant transformation. You'll also learn how to:

- Develop and use your intuition
- Balance brain, body, organs, as well as the endocrine and immune systems
- Balance Chinese Medicine physical and energetic patterns
- Unwind physical and energetic blocks
- Release beliefs and emotional patterns
- Clear distorted perceptions
- Balance your client's connection to their highest self for healing

Is This Course for You?

This system is for everyone! For all those who want to feel more empowered in their own healthcare. For energy workers that rely solely on their right brain intuition, Accunect provides a framework that provides a clear focus or awareness on what needs to be addressed and can be woven seamlessly into other modalities. For all healthcare practitioners who do not currently have a way to easily utilize and incorporate their right brain intuition into their existing practice. For anyone who is looking for healing, transformation and connection!
